Serves 8–10 · Prep 15 min · Cook 45 min

INGREDIENTS

- 180 g almond flour
- 60 g desiccated coconut
- 250 g sugar
- ¼ tsp salt
- 4 eggs, at room temperature
- 1 tbsp almond essence
- 175 g butter, melted and cooled, plus extra for greasing
- 2 tbsp flaked almonds

METHOD

1. Prepare the tin. Preheat the oven to 170°C. Grease a 20 cm round cake tin and line the base with baking paper.
2. Combine the dry ingredients. Mix the almond flour, desiccated coconut, sugar and salt in a large bowl, breaking up any lumps.
3. Mix the wet ingredients. In a separate bowl, whisk the eggs with the almond essence until combined. Gradually whisk in the melted, cooled butter.
4. Make the batter. Pour the wet mixture into the dry ingredients and stir until evenly combined.
5. Spoon into the prepared tin, smooth the surface and scatter the flaked almonds over the top.
6. Bake. Bake for approximately 40–45 minutes, until golden and set in the centre. A skewer should come out clean or with a few moist crumbs.
7. Cool. Leave in the tin for 15 minutes, then carefully unmould and transfer to a wire rack. Allow to cool further before slicing.

Tip

Use cooled melted butter. It should still be liquid but no longer hot when mixed with the eggs.
