

Creamy Peanut Butter Chicken

FROM NELL'S KITCHEN

Crunchy peanut butter and coconut cream make a rich, comforting sauce for chicken, balanced with lemon, fresh ginger and a little cayenne.

Serves 4–6 · Prep 15 min · Cook 25 min

INGREDIENTS

FOR THE CHICKEN

- 800 g boneless chicken breast or thigh, cut into bite-sized pieces
- 2 tbsp vegetable oil
- 1 tbsp finely grated fresh ginger
- 1 tsp ground coriander
- ¼–½ tsp cayenne pepper, to taste

FOR THE PEANUT SAUCE

- ½ cup crunchy peanut butter
- 400 ml coconut cream
- 2 tbsp brown sugar
- 3 tbsp fresh lemon juice
- 2 tbsp soy sauce
- 1 tbsp oyster sauce
- Water, a little as needed to loosen the sauce

FOR THE RICE

- 2 cups basmati rice
- 1 tbsp butter
- Water, according to the rice packet instructions

METHOD

1. Prepare the rice. Rinse the basmati rice until the water runs mostly clear. Cook according to the packet instructions. Once cooked, gently fold in the butter and keep covered until serving.
2. Mix the sauce. Whisk together the crunchy peanut butter, coconut cream, brown sugar, lemon juice, soy sauce and oyster sauce. The peanut pieces will remain throughout the sauce.
3. Brown the chicken. Heat the vegetable oil in a large, deep frying pan over medium-high heat. Add the chicken in batches and cook until lightly golden. Transfer to a plate.
4. Reduce the heat to medium-low. Add the ginger, ground coriander and cayenne to the pan. Stir for approximately 30 seconds, until fragrant.
5. Bring everything together. Pour in the peanut sauce and stir, lifting any browned bits from the bottom of the pan. Return the chicken and any collected juices.
6. Simmer gently for approximately 10–15 minutes, stirring regularly, until the chicken is cooked through. Add water a little at a time if the sauce becomes too thick.
7. Taste and adjust the balance: a little more lemon for brightness, brown sugar for sweetness or cayenne for heat.
8. Serve over the buttery basmati rice, with plenty of peanut sauce.

Tip

Use crunchy peanut butter. It gives the sauce little pieces of peanut in every bite.
