My Go-To Salsa

FROM NELL'S KITCHEN

This is the salsa I make for a Mexican-inspired spread: simple, full of flavour and delicious with almost everything on the table.

Serves 8–12 · Prep 10 min · Cook 35 min

INGREDIENTS

- 2 tbsp olive oil
- 1 medium onion, finely diced
- 1 cup finely diced mixed capsicums
- 2 cans chopped tomatoes, approximately 400 g each, with their juices
- ½ tsp salt, adjusted to taste
- 2 tbsp chopped pickled jalapeños

METHOD

1. Heat the olive oil in a saucepan over medium heat. Add the onion and capsicums and cook for approximately 7–10 minutes, stirring occasionally, until softened.
2. Add the chopped tomatoes and their juices, followed by the salt. Stir well and bring to a gentle simmer.
3. Reduce the heat and simmer uncovered for approximately 20–25 minutes, stirring occasionally, until the sauce has reduced and thickened.
4. Add the chopped pickled jalapeños during the last 5 minutes of cooking. Stir through and finish reducing the salsa to your preferred consistency.
5. Taste and adjust the salt. Serve warm, or allow to cool and refrigerate in an airtight container.

Tip

Dice the vegetables finely and evenly. This gives you a little of everything in each spoonful.
